Thursday, September 27, 2018
Smith Auditorium at the Erie County Medical Center
7:00am: Management of meniscal tear in middle aged and older patients: making sense of recent RCT’s

Jeffrey N. Katz, MD, MSc

- Dr. Jeffrey Katz is Director of the Orthopaedic and Arthritis Center for Outcomes Research at Brigham and Women’s Hospital in Boston
- Dr. Katz’s research has focused on the evaluation and outcomes of musculoskeletal disorders including carpal tunnel syndrome, osteoarthritis, lumbar spinal stenosis and lower extremity joint replacement
- Dr. Katz is Professor of Medicine and Orthopaedic Surgery, as well as Director of Scholars in Medicine at Harvard Medical School
- In 2017, he was appointed President of Osteoarthritis Research Society International, the leading medical society for advancing the understanding, early detection, treatment and prevention of osteoarthritis through exclusive research